REGISTRATION FORM

To register for a class, please complete the registration form located on the department's web site at tax.illinois.gov.

RE-TAKING EXAMINATIONS

Any student who receives a 60% to 68% on his or her class examination, may retake the examination one time within 6 months of the original test date without having to repeat the class. If the student is unsuccessful on the retake, the student may continue to retake the exam as long as the grade on the last retake was 60% to 68%. For courses offered in the home study format, there is no limit on scores or the number of times the examination may be repeated. Examinations may be taken on any scheduled examination date at either 9:00 a.m. or 1:00 p.m., unless otherwise specified. Complete the registration form on the website for home study exams. Please be advised that registration for home study examinations will close one week prior to the examination date.

HOME STUDY EXAMINATIONS AND MATERIAL

Home study examinations will be offered at 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., unless otherwise specified, on various dates and at various locations throughout the year. Please be advised that registration for home study examinations will close one week prior to the examination date. Several courses are currently available in both the traditional classroom format and the home study format. See course descriptions for more information. Several of the home study classes may be studied online in the education area of the property tax section of the department's web site.

CREDIT HOURS

All 2017 department classes meet for two full days with the exam on the morning of the third day. Upon successful completion, 15 hours of exam credit will be awarded.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance is mandatory for all IDOR traditional classroom classes to receive credit.
